

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR GUEST WITH PETS

We warmly welcome you to Camping Bergamini and wishing a pleasant stay we kindly ask to follow the rules below:

1. For a proper internal organization, the presence and number of dogs should be reported at the booking and upon arrival. Pets must have their health records with them, showing that all vaccinations envisaged by the Italian Law have been carried out.
2. Pets are welcome on the pitches (maximum of two dogs) and accommodations (maximum one dog). The Management reserves the right to apply or not to apply the above rules at its discretion.
3. For respect of the animals and of the other guests, it's the duty of the owners to ensure full compliance with health and hygiene regulations during their pet's stay. While staying on the campsite, dogs must always be accompanied for relieve themselves and owners have to remove the excrements immediately using a special bag and the containers provided.
4. For your dog's security: they may not be left unattended in camping pitches or accommodations.
5. We quote a note of the Italian Consitution (Minis. Ord. 03.03.2009): Dogs must always be kept on a lead a maximum of 1.5 m long and owners must have a suitable sized muzzle with them at all times to be used as needed or when requested by the competent authorities.
6. An external "dog shower" is available, shown on the map of the campground. We kindly ask to not take and shower dogs inside the toilet facilities.
7. For everyone's peace of mind, it's the responsibility of the owners to ensure that their pets do not disturb other guests.
8. We inform our kind guests that owners are fully responsible for damages caused by their dogs to third parties and to the Camping facilities.
9. Possible maltreatment behaviour will be reported to the competent authorities.
10. The Management reserves the right to immediately get away from the campsite the Guests who transgress these rules.

We kindly ask our guests to behave well and correctly towards everyone at all times. The Camping management is always available for any clarification or problem resolution.
